IMPORTANT TO OUR READERS AND SUBSCRIBERS. Important to our Readers and Susscribera.—The following has been handed to us. We think, certainly on such terms, few will be troubled with coughsor colds. Read this. The proprietor offers to supply all with Professor Jones's Cough Candy, and after they have used it if they feel satisfied it is one of the humbugs of the day, or that it is not all it is represented, he will willingly return the money. It really cures coughs, colds, hoarsness, asthma, spliting of blood, and the first stages of consumption. Among the many who have been cured by it, are Hiram Anents, 113 William-street, or 238 Washington-street; and it is only one shilling a large package. AINSWORTH'S NEW NOVEL. AN EXTRA EROTHER JONATHAN will be published TO-MORROW MORNING, Nov. Soth, containing the first complete American Edition (from the London Eook Edition, revised by the Author,) of

THE MISER'S DAUGHTER,

BY W. HARRISON AINSWORTH, Esq. Author of 'Jack Sheppard,' 'Guy Fawkes,' 'Tower of London,' 'Valentine Vox,' 'Windsor Castle,' &c.

This is a Romance of thrilling interest, and is not inferior to the most popular works of its gifted author. The principal characters are strongly drawn, and the plot has more reality and less of the melo-dramatic than some of the author's previous efforts. This edition may be sent by mail for newspaper postage only. Price 122 cents, or ten copies for one dollar. WILSON & COMPANY, Publishers, 162 Nassau st.

MARY HOWITT'S NEW WORK.

DOUBLE EXTRA NEW WORLD. Mary Howitt is known more favorably to American real ders than almost any other writer of her sex. Her works have always been immediately republished here, and read with great avidity. The novel with the above title is a by her, from the Swedish, and is a tale of domestchie, of deep and pervading interest, The scenes, incidents, manners and customs, are entirely new, and they are depicted with wonderful skill and force. The story i one which cannot fail to improve and soften the heart. It is peculiarly fitted for pure-minded and scrupulous persons. who generally object to the kind of intellectual aliment supplied by works of romance. We therefore hesitate not to recommend it warmly to the lovers of good morals. Er Single copies 183 cents; to agents, $12 per hundred Copies may be had at the office, 30 Ann st., neatly put up in wrappers for the mails. Also, at the Branch office, 459 n29 2t (2)

D' American Eclectic and Museum of Foreign Laterature, Science and Art.-The proprietors and editor of the American Eclectic are happy to inform their subscribers and others, that an arrangeme has been effected by which ' Littell's Museum' will be united with the Eclectic, under the above title, and the new werk commence with the January number, 1843.

It will be printed on good type and good paper, in large octavo form, couble column, and will be issued in monthly numbers of 144 pages each, (simultaneously in New-York and Philadelphia.) affording to readers nearly four times as much matter as is now furnished in the Eclectic. This will enable us to publish all the matter of the four British Quarterlies that is valuable, besides a variety of interesting selections from the best Magazines, and an occasional arti cle translated from the Continental Journals, together with such notices of toreign books and lists of recent publications as have been usual in the Eclectic.

With the present Editorial control of the Eclectic and the large experience of E. Littell, Esq. in the conduct of such a werk, it is confidently expected that it will make one of the best family periodicals of the day, presenting such a va riety of choice matter as will be adapted to the different Markets-Carefully reported for The Tribune. MONDAY, Nov. 18.

ASHES-The market is rather firmer for Pots, and about 60 buls have been sold to-day at $5 372, below which we elieve there is none to be bad. The demand is not large but fair. Pearls are dull, buyers generally offering only $5 75 and sellers being firm at 5.87½. A sale of 50 bbls was made at 5.87½. The bills out to-day are about 400 bbls, the eceipts about 75 bbls. COTTON-The business is but moderate to-day, sales reaching about 600 bales. Rates are without change but easy and holders are anxious to sell at present prices. We quote fair Upland 74 a 74; fair New-Orleans and Alabama 8 a 81. The sales are principally to shippers, FLOTR-The continuance of the cold weather, and the certainty that the Canals sare now closed beyond a chance of any reopening this season, has given Western Flour today an impetus which has placed it at $4 274 a 5 00, an ad vance at least of 37½c since Saturday. This rise, however has prevented sales to any extent. Before some of the dealers were fairly awake this morning, some sales had been made at $4 62½ a 4 75, but at the close of business there was we believe, nothing to be had below $4.871, and very little at that. The quantity affoat is quite small and is held a. $5 00 for all descriptions. The only sales at the high rates we were able to hear of were 100 bbls of an extra brand and a ot of 500 bbls Niagara Mills, branded 'extra,' at $5 00, ou speculation. There is some speciative demand but not at the high rates quoted. Troy is held at $5 00, without sales Letters from the Canal state that but a few more boats of those which were lying near Schoharie Creek will reach Albany this season. The improvement in Western has had a favorable effect on Southern descriptions, and about 700 bbls Georgetown has been sold to-day, 300 for West Indies at $5.75, an advance of 12½c. It is not pleaty at this price One holder of Brandywine has put the rate up to $5 00 .-The other descriptions cannot be quoted, there having been no sales. Some small lats of New-Orleans are offering but there are no purch asers at present prices. It is nominally at $5 87}. All the Rye Flour received to-day, 200 bbls, sold at $3 12; a 3 25, supposed for storing. Jersey $3 25 a S 37; Meal continues dull. We quote Jersey, without sales, at 62½; sales 300 bbls Brandywine, for shipment, at 275 a 281½ Hods $12 75, cash, and 13 25, 4 mos. Buck wheat Flour is $2.75 a 3.00, with good supplies; prime is worth 3.25. At Baltimore, Howard-street is $4 00. Sales 10,000 bbis City Mills, during the week, at 400. Stock, both Flour and Wheat, 25,000 bbls, which is small. At Philadelphia, Penn sylvania Fiour $4 121. At Alexandria 3 871, At Richmond 3 874 a 3 90; City Mids 5 00. At Fredericksburg, Mountain 3 90 a 4 00; Lewland S 65 a S 70. At Cincinnati 2 70 a 2 75. GRAIN-Wheat has felt the effect of the advance of Flour, and a sale of 1800 bushels Illinois was made to a city miller at 95c, on time. The last sales were at 89 a 89}. There is but a small quantity now offering. There is rather more demand for Corn from distillers, but we see little improve ment in price. We notice sales 1000 bushels new Northers considerable improvement on last sales. Shorts are nomin ally 10c. At Alexandria, Wheat was 78c for prime Red. A Richmond 65 a 85. At Fredericksburg 65 a 77. HAY-Has rather an improving tendency. We quote 4: 45, with some prime at 50. There is an enquiry for Charles-

U. S. CIRCUIT COURT .- The November terra emmenced this day before Judge Betts, Judge Thompon not having yet arrived in town. A sufficient number of Grand Jurors not appearing, the Marshall was directed to ummen nine additional ones. The name of Anthony L. Frosch (against whom sever I indictments for perjury at he Custem House are pending) was called, but not an wering, his recognizances were ordered to be forteited. His securities are William C. Atwell $5,000, Warren Wild, $6,000, John T. Butler $1,000, and J. N. Bassett $1,000. It is supposed that the sureties are secured. Samuel A. Suydum appeared, and, by his counsel, Mr. Price, put in affidavits, (as authorised to do last term,) in mitigation of punistiment. He has been found guilty, our reade s will re collect, of an assault on Signor o'Alvear, a foreign minister to the U.S. COMMON PLEAS .- James McMillan vs. Mon. nouth B. Hart .- The Sheriff, in June last, held an execu tion against Erastus Wheeler, and levied upon West India goods, as belonging to him, at 199 Front-street, selling about $2,000 worth. The plaintiff claims to have owned the property, and brings action of trespass to recover the mount. He avers that himself and Mr. Thos. S. McCarty endorsed for Wheeler, and that the latter made over to hem the goods, $3,500 being due to them. The defendant ontends that Wheeler was bona fide owner of the goods. The case will be continued to-morrow forenoon.

MARINE COURT .- James S. Magnus vs. Harner, McGowan & Hays -To recover the amount of a bill for coach-lace manufactured to order. The defence is that it had been left on commission, but denied. Mr. Magnus conducted his case in person, acting at the same time as plaintiff, witness and counsel. Verdict for plaint ff.

COMMON PLEAS .- DECISIONS .- In the matter of the dower fund of Magdalen Hosack, late Coster, deeased .- Motion that Francis Barreto be allowed, without giving security, a portion of money paid in, denied; but if the parties litigating desire it the money shall be paid into he Court of Chancery.

Ann Johnston vs. David L. Bennett .- Action of assault Nonsuit was granted, owing to plaintid bringing action in the name of Johnston, whereas she had since married a man named Murphy, (since dead.) Motion to set nonsuit aside. The defendant knew who was the real plaintiff, and, under the principle laid down in 1st Chitty 282 and 485, was not entitled to nonsuit. New trial granted, with costs to abide the event.

ARRESTS .- Thomas E. Trimnell , who arrived on Saturday as passenger on board the ship Adriondac, from Liverpool, was arrested this torenoon, with intent to defraud the revenue, 45 silver watches. The penalty, under the ed a man having in his possession a felt-sack coat, evidently stolen, for which an owner is wanted at the Police Office. CORONER'S OFFICE .- SUICIDE .- The Coroner held an inquest to-day, at the Alms House in the Park, on the body of Joseph Moses, a native of France, aged about 50 years, who, after a series of outrages at the Seaman's Boarding House of Nicholas Welty, 88 Washington-street, on Saturday night, was lodged in the First District Watch House, where he hung himself as stated in our paper this IJ Spencer announces to gentlemen that his arrange ments are now completed for supplying according to vious intimation, a FINE FUR HAT at a price ($3 25) which shall render it emphatically the cheapest as well as lowest priced Gentlemen's Fur Hat ever on sale in this city. It is prepared in the same style which characterizes our finest article, and like that article is offered at a price at Monmouth B. Hart, High Sheriff of this City and County, which it cannot be continued without an unusually rapid sale. The undersigned with all confidence affirms it to be for the gentleman and economist the most desirable Fur Hat yet offered. (020tf) SPENCER, 245 Broadway.

D' Orlando Fish, Fashionable Hatter, 187 Broad way, would inform the gentlemen of New-York that his Fall and Winter style of Hats is now ready for their inspection and critical judgement. Claiming the distinction of having been the first to project and abide by a strictly AMERICAN style of Hats, instead of servilely copying the Fashions of Europe, which are often unsuited to our climate and manners, he rejoices to perceive that others have seen fit to follow his lead, and that now the following o European Fashions in Hats is almost entirely abandoned by the leading manufacturers.

He offers a Winter style of Gentlemen's Nutria Hats at $3 50, and warrants them equal in material, finish, fashion and durability to any Hat sold as low as $4 in the city But he wishes it distinctly understood that his best Hats are not sold at this price, but at $4 50. These he recommends as equal to any hat sold in New-York at $5 or under, and challenges for them a comparison with any other.
Gentlemen visiting our city are respectfully invited to call and examine his new stock of Winter hats and judge of their quality. He is confident that, whether the changest or the best Hat is desired, the inquirer will here be satisfied Try him. (s20tf) O. FISH, 157 Broadway.

Chatham Square, corner of Mott-street, where Fashion, Beauty, Durability and Economy are combined in the form of a beautiful and neaty finished Hat for the small sum of $3.
